Four weeks of Food Glorious Food... and Drink - Prepare to take your taste buds on a terrific tour!

If you're passionate about food and drink and discerning about where it comes from, then you're in for a real treat.

Welcome to the 8th annual Horsham District Food & Drink Festival, a month long celebration of all the wonderful local food & drink from the Horsham District. The District is rich in local produce, from award winning vineyards and independent breweries, to farms and farm shops and wonderful small producers.

This programme is your definitive guide - A truly magnificent showcase of incredible events, fantastic offers and simply gorgeous local food and drink, brought to you courtesy of the participating businesses.

The Festival is organised by Horsham District Council's Business Development Unit with sponsorship from Camelia Botnar, Freedom Food, Spofforths, West Sussex County Council, Federation of Small Businesses, Wabi, Spirit FM, Chichester College - Brinsbury Campus, The Resident and Foundry Press. Without the generous support from sponsors and participating businesses, the Festival would not be possible, so a BIG thank you to all.

For details on farmers markets, please refer to page 3 of this programme.
See individual business entries for times and further details.
Many of these events have limited capacity and require prior booking direct with the business or contact stated.

YOUR VOTE COUNTS! The Sussex Food & Drink Awards are the only awards that highlight, recognise and support Sussex farmers and producers and the businesses which sell and promote their produce in the local market place. Vote for your favourites now at www.sussexfoodawards.biz or call 01273 857242 to request paper voting forms.

TOP TIPS TO GET THE MOST FROM THIS PROGRAMME:

- 1 Don't miss out! Use this calendar of events to plan your 4 Festival weeks.
- 2 There is a map on pages 16 & 17 so you can find all participating businesses.
- 3 Where booking is necessary, we advise that you book early to avoid disappointment, especially where numbers are limited.
- 4 This programme is your passport to all the special offers. Hang on to it and produce it to qualify. Please mention the programme when booking as you may need this to qualify for the special offer.
- 5 Why not keep this programme as a year-round directory for local produce?

Horsham District Council would like to thank all the sponsors and supporters of the Horsham District Food & Drink Festival 2010 for their generous support, without which the event would not be possible. This year, we have more sponsors than ever before - a fantastic endorsement for the Festival.

FESTIVAL SPECIAL: Apple Day: Sunday 3 October, 11am to 3pm. Come along and join the County Council's Countryside Rangers for their annual Apple Day, held in an old orchard behind the Orchard Restaurant on the A272, (between Buck Barn junction with A24 and Cowfold). Entry is FREE. There will be lots of activities for children and adults alike, including making masks, bird feeders and bird boxes and traditional apple games like apple bobbing. We will be joined by local woodland crafts people and a blacksmith. Find out about badgers and birds from The Badger Society and the RSPB. We will have a food tasting stall, so you can try lots of local produce. Bring some British apples with you to be pressed and a container for the juice. Refreshments are available. The orchard is on the Downs Link bridleway (old railway line), and parking is limited, so why not make a day of it and cycle to the event or park at Copsale or Partridge Green and enjoy a 45 minute walk along the old railway line and soak up the West Sussex wildlife as you go!

10 Wine & Food Evening

Organised by Fenix Gourmet Grill

Horsham Local Produce Market – every Saturday

Tel: 07717 750885

tony@manhind.com

FESTIVAL SPECIAL: You are invited to an evening of indulgence in local wines and foods in Horsham. Hosted by a local food and wine expert, you will taste several of the best local wines and sample a whole host of local foods, which will either bring out the wine, or teach you that you should never serve the two together. There will be simple advice on wine and how to match different foods with different grapes. The evening will end with a gourmet meal, with one of the wines tasted. The evening is informal and great fun. The cost is £15 per person. For more information, call or email Tony on the above, or come and see us at the Horsham local produce market in the Carfax every Saturday.
