

Walton Drive, Horsham

The White House, Amberley

Fountains, Horsham

West Lodge, Coneyhurst, Horsham

The Hornets, Horsham

Sussex Building Control plays a key role in helping people create dream homes by providing a information and guidance to homeowners and technical advice to their architects and builders.

Their familiarity with the local area and unique knowledge of the ground conditions and site history combined with their technical knowledge and hands on experience provides home owners with reassurance that, by working with the local authority building control (LABC) team they can rest assured their work will comply with building regulations standards.