TIPS

The person selling the alcohol:

By selling alcohol to a person who is under 18, it is YOU that commits the offence. You could receive a penalty notice of £90 or an unlimited fine if prosecuted.

The customer:

A customer who purchases alcohol for a person under 18, or attempts to do so, commits an offence. They could receive a penalty notice of £90 or a fine of up to £5,000 if prosecuted.

A customer who is under 18 and purchases alcohol or attempts to do so, or consumes alcohol on the premises also commits an offence. They could receive a penalty notice of £90 or a fine of up to £1,000 if prosecuted.

The licence holder:

Persistently selling of alcohol to children is defined as selling alcohol on the same premises to a person who is under 18 on two or more occasions within a single three month period. Currently there are three avenues by which action can be taken against premises to be persistently selling alcohol to children.

- The licence holder, if prosecuted, can plead not guilty and go to court and if found guilty can be given an unlimited fine with up to 3 months suspension of the alcohol licence.
- As an alternative to prosecution, the police or trading standards officers can give the licence holder the option to voluntarily accept a 48 hour closure notice rather than face criminal liability.
- The police can make a representation to the relevant licensing authority to ask them to review the licence. This can also happen in addition to options 1 and 2.
